dedication

a degree—many things . . . a new state in life, an awareness . . . a realization—no, not too late—of the greatness, the goodness of the past . . . to look back, a turn not to stone, but to silence, the silence of reflection . . . so much has gone by—gone beyond recall but not beyond remembrance . . .

so much to remember . . . innocence of childhood with you always there to care, to protect, to love . . . the eagerness—or anxiety—of adolescence with you always ready to teach, to give, to love . . .

now, in maturity, we remember . . . from awareness comes gratitude . . . we realize the goodness of the past . . . the glory of the present . . . the grandeur of the future . . . all made possible by you . . . in heartfelt gratefulness we pray God's blessing for you . . . and, in sincerity, in hopefulness, but most of all, in love, we dedicate our yearbook to you—our parents.

Every day of every year it is fitting and proper to pay a tribute of love and gratitude to our beloved Bishop, but in this tenth year of his Consecration as our Shepherd it is a special privilege to honor and extol him. Therefore, we, the students of Salve Regina College, proudly say to him through the pages of our Regina Maris: We salute you, Most Reverend Bishop, as a true Prince of Holy Mother Church, a zealous Apostle, a kind and generous Father, a true imitator of Christ your Model in the care of the lambs and the sheep of your flock. We congratulate you on your holy achievements during the ten short years of your Episcopacy. The poor, the sick, the aged; children, youth, leaders, priests, religious, laity—all have been the recipients of your prayers, your zeal, your generosity in the great crusade of bringing souls to Christ.

We, the Class of 1958, speak not only for ourselves, but also for all the students of Salve Regina College when we say to you—We felicitate you, Most Reverend Bishop on this your tenth anniversary. We pledge to you our love, our loyalty, our prayers for all the tens of future years that God may grant you in His holy service.
